

That it be deemed sufficient for a individual phone subscriber with the "Call Manager" option to not be called, ever, by telemarketers or solicitors. (Call manager prevents an anonymous, private, out-of area, or unavailable caller from ringing through to the subscriber.) And should the telemarketer override this feature, they should be subject to fines and/or civil penalties.